RADHI & ISAAC

Radhi will never forget the night that her husband Isaac proposed – he had picked out a beautiful antique ring, and planned a romantic dinner for two, but the faithful family dog almost derailed the whole evening. “When I walked in the front door, our dog Charlie came bounding up to me with a huge bow tied around his neck,” Radhi says with a laugh. “Isaac suggested I inspect his collar closely, but unfortunately, Charlie gets very excited when someone gets home, and he was doing laps around the room!” The proposal may not have gone quite according to plan, but all the same, Radhi was overjoyed to be marrying her lifelong friend Isaac. The pair chose Hillstone St Lucia located at St Lucia Golf Links for their wedding and reception. “It’s an absolutely stunning location,” Radhi says. “We had heard so many great things from other couples who had gotten married there and thought it would be perfect for our special day.” The event took a lot of planning, but when the day arrived, all of Radhi’s nerves just melted away. “There were some minor hiccups,” she says, “but it was our special day, and nothing in the world could ruin it!”

the planning

“WITH THE HELP OF ALL OUR amazing suppliers the planning process went quite smoothly,” says Radhi. “Some aspects of organising were quite stressful, but I coped by looking at the bigger picture. It’s easy to get frustrated in the planning stage, but when you think about the end product, your wedding, you realise it’s all worthwhile.”

RADHI AND ISAAC CHOSE

vintage glamour as the theme for their wedding. "The 1930s is my favourite era for fashion and glamour," she says, "and I thought it would tie in beautifully to create a romantic and elegant day." The dress, which Radhi designed herself, was the finishing touch for this elegant occasion.
